FaithWork Publishing, LLC wishes to emphasize that you as the user must agree to our Terms and Conditions upon entry to this site. This means that you are responsible for using the site correctly. This privacy policy is designed to protect the interests of every user of our site.

If you are not willing to adhere to these Terms and Conditions, please leave the site.

This site is operated, owned, and managed by FaithWork Publishing, LLC and contains material published and produced by our specialist staff, graphics designers, editors, and other members of the team. By entering the site, you agree that:

You will adhere to the following Terms and Conditions:

- You recognize that FaithWork Publishing, LLC owns this site and that all its content has been produced and published under our company name and is therefore copyrighted to us. This is the result of having been developed and/or created by our editorial staff and/or our specialist designers of graphics and/or comprises material published by us within our books that are about to be published or are already published. These may be graphical representations, created logos, specialist illustrations, and/or text. This overall description includes our trademark, logo, and other specific products containing our copyrighted artwork.
- You agree not to send any communication, letter, email, or other messages through our site, violating any other person's rights.
- You agree that nothing that you submit to us by any means contains vilification of another party, innocent or otherwise, nor any libelous statements, abusive, obscene material, defamatory matter of any type whatsoever, nor any racist remarks or similar comments or criticisms.
- You agree that your interests are likewise protected under these Terms and Conditions.
- By entering this site, you agree that you waive all claims against the Company, its officers, its employees, or its suppliers of information.
- Moreover, you waive all claims arising from your unauthorized use of the FaithWork Publishing, LLC facilities provided by the Company on this site.
- You agree that the Company reserves its rights to vet, oversee, monitor, and moderate all the information sent into the Company to satisfy any regulatory process, governmental law/request which might be at the time in force that might require disclosure.
- Should an author submit work that he or she has written and that the Company (FaithWork Publishing, LLC) wishes to publish but does not have at that time the immediate facility to offer a non-contributory publishing contract, an alternative opportunity to publish the manuscript in question is then considered. Consequently, information and details concerning this alternative form of agreement which may involve a contribution from the author, are subsequently sent for consideration to the author.
